An illusion so real it will fool the most dedicated fan. With startling clarity, the One Ring appears to magically suspend in mid-air. Yet when you reach to grab it, your fingers go through it. Hidden within the chamber, the actual ring is projected on top in a 3-Dimensional image that is incredibly real. The Mirage is actually a scientific physical phenomenon that will leave those who see it amazed. The Chamber is beautifully crafted with rich imagery from The Lord of the Rings film trilogy. It requires nothing more than light to operate - no batteries. This authorized and unique creation measures approximately 7 1/2 inches in diameter. Authorized by New Line Cinema.
