This fully licensed adult collectible is straight out of the video game, Devil May Cry 4. The extremely popular game series offers players the opportunity to battle demons using a variety of different weapons, including this massive two-handed sword equipped with a super-charged power trigger that activates a fuel injected system which covers the blade in fuel allowing it to ignite for a brief period of time. The sword was created by Fornuna's Order of the Sword as part of a plan to battle and defeat more powerful demons. The sword was given by the Order to Nero following his overwhelming skills in battle. This authentic replica sword used in the Capcom video game stretches a massive 42 inches overall and offers a 31 3/4-inch stainless steel blade (false-edged). The genuine leather wrapped grip is surrounded by solid metal handle parts. Each sword is individually serial-numbered and includes a custom display plaque and certificate of authenticity.

Product parameters:
