Be thankful for every feast with these period feasting utensils. Fork, knife and spoon all feature the blacksmith's twist and can be carried in the supplied tie-fold leather belt pouch. Roughly 8" long overall. Finally, feasting utensils for the re-enactor on the go! Great for Viking and medieval settings, our knife, fork and spoon set fit neatly in a tie-fold, open belt leather pouch for a great combo. Easy to take along to the faire, a picnic, camp out? or wherever you want to be able to eat out! The handle for each hand-forged piece has the traditional blacksmith's twist and the knife is capable of holding an edge.

Please clean before use; these have been heated treated and oil quenched. To minimize rusting, keep oiled.
